You're Invited to Renew for 2022-23

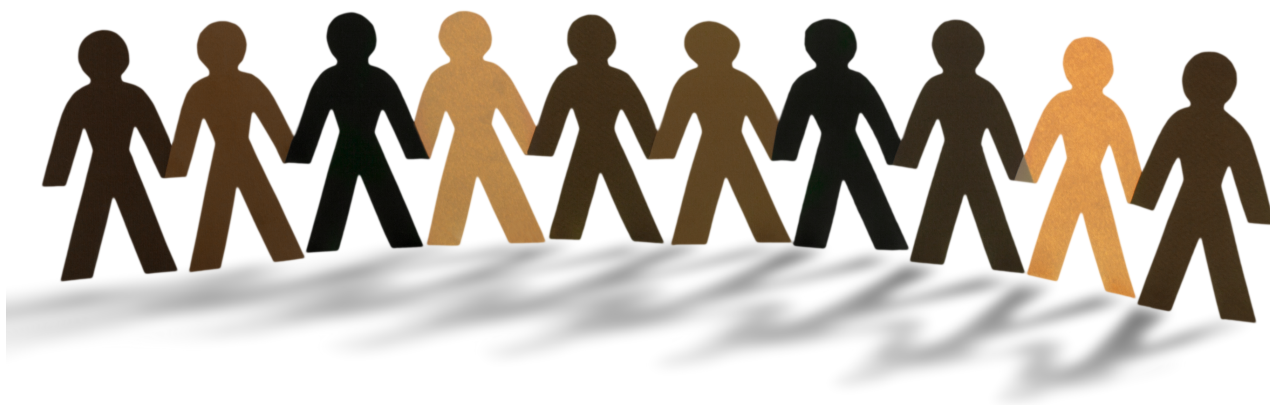

1st July - The First Day of a New Membership Year

Our Customer Service Team will contact you soon regarding your renewal for the next year.

You will also be sent some information on the AGM and your obligations as a member. If you are required to submit information to the Centre for the purpose of membership - please wait to hear from us. Requests will be made for online submissions where necessary.

The great news is fees for current members remain the same*. We have been able to freeze our fees for almost 10 years now and we're proud of that. Whilst costs around us increase everywhere, we aspire to bring better services whilst recognising financial pressure on our members.

New memberships are subject to a minor change in fee structure.*

Professional Development Awards for Courses

Final Phase - The Legal Bits

IARC's Professional Development Awards for Courses (Framework of Standards) is almost ready to launch. We've handed over our paperwork to our lawyers to fine comb the small print and make sure we are bringing you the best possible quality assurance product to suit your courses, your students and your business.

Once done, all current members will be invited to register 10 courses as Professional Development Courses with us... for free! The application to register courses is simple, each registration is processed online and self-assessed.

Upload your data to us, agree to the strictest terms and conditions this type of service demands, and you're offering stronger credentials on your courses right away.

More information will be released in coming weeks.
